

You are an heir/ Can't help falling in love

Oh don't you know that you are called for greatness chosen to reign to lead with holy holiness

I See your failures and I know you need answers but those with great failures are blessed to be winners see yourselves in the future you are royalty. (You are an heir x4)

Wise men say Only fools rush in But I can't help falling in love with you Shall I stay? Would it be a sin If I can't help falling in love with you? Like a river flows Surely to the sea Darling, so it goes Some things are meant to be

Take my hand take my whole life too For I can't help falling in love with you
